Courses Description

Objectives

Beginners/Pre-Intermediate:

Mastering basic Czech in everyday situations, basics of Czech grammar, ability to read easy Czech texts and headlines.

Intermediate/advanced students:

New vocabulary practised in useful topics, everyday conversation, more grammar rules and ability to understand the core of more difficult texts.

Beside that, the students will learn a lot not only about their schoolmates, but also about the Czech Republic, its history, traditions and present time.

Teaching methods

The teaching methods used are numerous, in fact all current methodological approaches are used. The most important is the communicative method, which makes students put the acquired knowledge immediately into practice. The method involves pair-work, grammar games, interactive games, gap-filling, conversation, listening, reading Czech books and newspapers, pronunciation games. Other methods (drills, audio-visual, translations, etc.) are also occasionally used, if they suit the needs.

The teachers usually use the textbook "Communicative Czech", level "Elementary" or "Intermediate", written by Ivana Rešková and Magdalena Pintarová. Besides this book a lot of other materials, often tailor-made by the teachers, are used, as well as adapted activities from supplementary materials for teaching other languages.

There will be a final written test based on what the students have acquired in the lessons. Besides, the students get a feedback from teachers throughout the course and in the case they ask for the students are given an additional tuition. Teachers make comments on the students' progress orally and individually. Having successfully passed the final test, students will get a Certificate – in value of 6 ECTS credits, recognized by European universities.

In total the course will consist of 146 hours. There will be 24 lessons of Czech language a week, so the total number within one course will be 96. Plus 50 hours per the course are intended for a cultural programme (films, theatre, sightseeing etc.).

Students will have an access to two classrooms equipped with computers connected to the Internet. The classrooms are open from 8 a.m. – 6 p.m. every weekday. English and Czech dictionaries are also available but students prefer either the Internet or their own bilingual dictionaries.

Each classroom also has a white board, a tape recorder, a CD player and/or a DVD player, projector and a video player. There is also a photocopier and a printer in the teachers' office, which students can take advantage of.

Extra Activities - Site Visits

We would also like to show the rich cultural life, historical traditions and, at the same time, modern achievements. Students will be offered trips to many interesting places including Brno's historical centre, castles (Austerlitz, Znojmo, Vranov, Pernštejn, Veverří, Špilberk and its casemates), unique historical towns (some of them on UNESCO list – Slavonice, Telč, Olomouc), natural phenomena (Moravian Karst – abbys Macocha and caves), and traditional events (an open wine cellars day in Čejkovice). Students may also take advantage of staying near Vienna (the capital of Austria) and make a trip there.

Students Reception

Students are expected to check in at JAMU hall of residence Astorka (address and location see bellow in „Accommodation“ paragraph) on Monday, August 13, 2010, from 8 a.m. (On principle, in urgent cases it is possible to check in already from Sunday evening, August 12. However we ask students to let us know that kindly in advance).

The introductory session starts on the same Monday at 8,30 a. m. at JAMU, 2 Beethovenova street, Brno. On the first evening students are invited by the teachers to a club where they introduce themselves, get the basic information about the course and are offered dinner of five traditional Czech dishes made by the teachers. As of the next days, classes start at 8,30 a.m. every day (Monday – Friday) in the same place. Each participant will be given a map of

Transport in Brno

As for public transport, Brno has a very efficient city transport system – provided by trams, buses and trolleybuses. Before each journey, you must purchase a ticket. Tickets are sold for example in vending machines at the tram/bus stops, at the tabacconist's or at tram or bus drivers (additionaly charged). The validity of a ticket is time and tariff zone limited. Inside the town it is enough to buy a 2 zones basic ticket (zones 100 a 101) for 15 or 60 minutes (depends on the distance and connection). Basic tickets for zones 100 and 101 cost 20,-CZK (valid for 15 minutes with transfers) or 25,-CZK (valid for 60 minutes with transfers). The ticket must be signed immediately after boarding a vehicle. The time (in minutes) of a journey from one stop to another is indicated at the timetables at tram, bus or trolley bus stations (a small number next to the name of each stop). If you travel by public transport with your suitcase (bigger than 20 x 30 x 50 cm), you should also buy a reduced 2 zones ticket for 15 or 60 minutes.

Notice: As an EILC student, you are NOT entitled to purchase a reduced student season ticket for one month.

As JAMU's dormitory is situated in the town center near the Department of Foreign Languages, where the courses will take place, you are likely not to have to use public transport every day.
